

I currently listen to K-LOVE on 90.7. It is one of the few radio stations offering quality programming that my entire family can listen to. It also notifies me of local and national events of interest. I know many people who consistently listen to K-LOVE and would be saddened by the loss of this wonderful station.